THIS MATTER COMING ON TO BE HEARD upon pre-trial conference before the undersigned Presiding Judge upon pleadings seeking an equitable distribution of the marital property of the parties;

AND IT APPEARING that the parties have reached agreement on certain facts and on certain issues and have set forth the areas of agreement and disagreement and their contentions as to such matters of disagreement;

AND IT APPEARING that by their signatures affixed hereto, each party stipulates that he or she agrees that the matters at issue between the parties are accurately stated, that he or she voluntarily agrees that the court may accept into evidence the stipulations contained herein;

AND IT APPEARING that by their signatures affixed hereto, each party stipulates that the stipulations and contentions of the parties as set forth herein are binding on the parties at trial, unless an amendment by the Judge is allowed;

AND IT FURTHER APPEARING that each party by signing this Pre-Trial Order swears that he or she has disclosed the existence of all property, both separate and marital, to which he or she may have had a claim to at the date of separation of the parties or since such date, regardless of to whom such property may be titled or in whom actual ownership may be designated, and each party further swears that such disclosure has been full and honest and is free from taint of fraud, and each party stipulates that if such disclosure is found not to have been full and honest, the Court shall have the authority, based upon such, to classify, value and distribute any item of property whose existence was not accurately disclosed in this Pre-Trial Order or otherwise modify any Order entered in reliance upon this Pre-Trial Order;
